

control girl

SHANNONPOPKIN.COM

PRAYERS OF SURRENDER IN AN OUT-OF-CONTROL STORM

Read the following verses to remind yourself of the truth, then respond to God in prayer, using the prompts.

I am not in control.

Read Psalm 107:25 and Proverbs 3:5-6

God, I believe you're using this storm to strip away the façade and show me that I am not in control of...

God, instead of leaning on my own understanding, I will trust you to...

You are in control, God.

Read Proverbs 16:33

God, thank you for using this storm to show me that you are in control of...

God I believe that none of this is random. Help me to trusty You with...

God help me to defer to your wisdom on...

God, show yourself to me in this storm.

Read Psalm 29:3, Psalm 107:29, and Psalm 71:12.

God, please come near! Please hear my cry. I long to know Your presence in my trouble and heartache, as I face...

Jesus, I want to see your power at work in...

Lord, I believe that you're using the backdrop of this storm to show me that You are...

God, I am watching for walk-on-water moments! I praise you for the ways you've revealed yourself to be...

You are my God.

Read Psalm 31:14-15 and Psalm 57:1

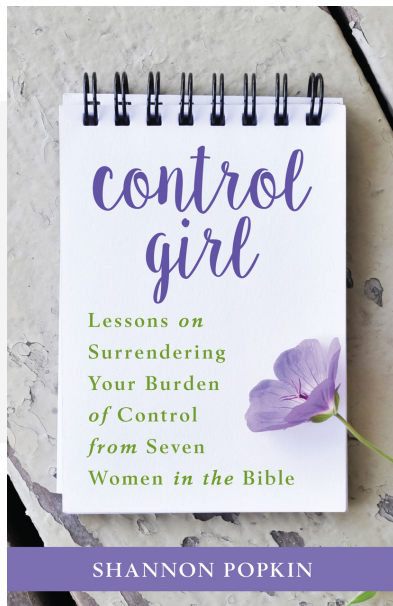

God, I place in your hands my safety, wellbeing regarding...

God I trust you with the future of...

Lord, help my responses in the storm to reflect my trust in You alone, and not...

control girl

A NINE WEEK STUDY
BY SHANNON POPKIN

"In your study of these seven women in the Bible, you'll be reminded in a hundred ways that God is in control—which means you don't have to be!"

- Shannon Popkin

VISIT CONTROLGIRL.COM FOR MORE

GET THE LEADER
MATERIALS!

CLICK HERE

